BRADY'S BEND

Named for Capt. Samuel Brady (1756 Famed frontier scout and the subject of many legends. Near here in June 1863, a battle was fought on the school was then Scheca territory...

The Cogley House is a resort home in a beautiful rural surrounding along the Allegheny River. Available for overnight stays if you have an event in the area, or a vacation spot to spend the week or weekend. It is a newly renovated, furnished home. Includes towels and linen with washer and dryer on site.

Since 1952, the Cogley family has shared their private ownership of their Allegheny Riverfront property with the public.

So, whether it's the Cogley House Bed 'n No Breakfast, one of their campers, or one of their 23 (daily, weekly or seasonal) campsites with river access, you will be able to enjoy the northern most navigable portion of the scenic Allegheny River at East Brady.

Monday-Friday... You practically own the river!!!

Remember, George Washington didn't sleep here... but, YOU CAN!!!
